From the Desk of Fr. Fallon

Hi Everyone!

I'm back from retreat, and was happy to see all was in one piece (and peace) when I returned.

One of the graces God reminded me of on retreat is the friendship He wants with me, with each of us. A lot of us say, "Oh that's nice God. Thank you." But He's like,

HEY! I LOVE YOU! AND I WANT YOU TO RECEIVE MORE AND MORE OF MY LOVE!

He won't stop, and that's why He asks Simon in our Gospel to throw nets out once more to catch up that love.

Maybe you and I are like Simon, content with what we've already received. But what would happen if we keep fishing? Keep trusting Jesus, especially when we're worn out and through with the effort.

Amazing things will happen.

I know we're still digging out from the Winter weather, but maybe we could think of how we could chip away at our frozen hearts and let the Lord do a brand new thing.

Cast out into the deep!

Glad to Be Home,

Fr. Fallon
