From the Desk of Fr. Fallon

Happy Easter!

We're still going in the Easter season. Since it's the Third Week of Easter and Jesus appears to His disciples for the third time, you could say the "third time's a charm!"

Sometimes it feels like it takes a lot for Jesus to get through to us. The same is true of St. Peter. He literally goes back to what he knows, fishing, after denying the Lord. It's as if he's lost his true identity as Peter, The Rock, and has gone back to before he knew Jesus.

Do we do this sometimes in our lives? Do we go back to old ways of thinking, living, even sinning?

Jesus is waiting on the seashore as we hear in John 21. He wants to nourish us and provide us a new way of living. That's why He died and rose from the dead!

This is hard for Peter; for us, too. But let's try to be attentive to the ways the Lord wants us to change, to grow, to reconcile with you. "Yes, Lord. You know that I love you!"

There's so much to talk about! This is why we need several weeks of Easter! Keep growing with Jesus!

God Bless,
Fr. Fallon

Growing with Jesus!

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Build My Church

We continue to ask parishioners to support the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal. In today's Gospel, Jesus shows the apostles who they are to become: fishers of men. The Appeal helps us to continue seeking out all of our brothers and sisters so that we can bring the light of the Gospel into their lives. If you have not yet made a gift the Annual Catholic Appeal this year, please do so today. You can pick up our pledge after Mass, make a gift online at aca.archstl.org or use Text-to-Give by texting "ACA" to 243725.

Thank you for your gifts to God and our Parish.

Farewell Kyle and Adam, but definitely not Goodbye !

Last fall Kenrick Glennon Seminary assigned our parish, "Sunday Seminarian" Kyle Demel. Then shortly before Christmas, Seminarian Adam Pleimann joined the ranks, as our Pastoral Intern.

Kyle and Adam, though both of you were at Church of the Magdalen for only a short while, you've touched so many of us with your humor, wisdom, friendship and especially the love you have for Jesus. Thank you.

Yes, our Parish has certainly been doubly blessed with the gift of you two very fine young men. Please know that your Church of the Magdalen Parish family will continue to keep you in our prayers. Stop by whenever you are in the neighborhood okay?!

May you bring a little of "South St. Louis 63109" where ever you go. God Bless you both!

Tissue please....
