From the Desk of Fr. Fallon

Hi Everyone,

These are not your warm and cozy readings this week. As we get into the Thirty Third Week of Ordinary Time, our focus is on the end times. Jesus shares there will be much destruction and insurrection and warns us there will be many who will claim to be the Messiah, will claim the end time has come.

Jesus also tells us not a hair on our head will be harmed. That can be hard to believe when we've seen such atrocities in the past and in our present day. But no matter what happens, we will not be abandoned. We have a good God who takes care of us.

This requires a lot of faith!

I like this time of year because there's a transition at hand. The leaves are falling, there's a bite in the air, and liturgically we're preparing for Advent, a whole season of preparation. I invite you to let these weeks be ones of reflection and spiritual preparation. What is the Lord doing in your life? How can you be filled with more trust as we prepare for His coming?

Peace to You,

Fr. Fallon
