From the Desk of Fr. Fallon

Happy Thanksgiving Week, everyone!

I hope this can be a time of joy and gratitude for everyone in the parish. Even if your table may not be filled with bounty, might your heart be filled with the conviction the Lord is near and is taking care of you. That's a lot to be thankful for, indeed.

When I think of Thanksgiving, I think about the people in my lives who are gathered around my "table." By this I don't mean only the people I share Thanksgiving Dinner with, but the people with whom I associate and gather around metaphorical tables.

There are some who make me laugh, who bring mirth into my life

There are others who need me to work hard for them
Some who are broken and hurting, and need my compassion
Others who don't see who I am or what I'm trying to do.

And then there are others I haven't had the chance to meet, but who see my table, and yours, as a place of nourishment and refreshment. For my table is actually an altar. The Lord has seated us all around Him and wants us to offer sacrifices of praise for all He has done, is doing, and will do.

Our meal is the Mass. His sacrifice is for us. Eucharist means Thanksgiving.

So this week as you're prepping your turkey or standing in lines, or traveling to relatives, think about your table and how it's connected to the greater altar of the Lord, where He shares sustenance with His friends and offers all of who He is for us.

Might we learn to do the same for Him, in gratitude.

God Bless,
Fr. Fallon
